N. Y. MARKET, Oct, 20—3 P. M.
The sales of Cotton are 500 bales. Prices steady. Flour is very firm. At $4,50 every thing goes off instantly, and $4,56 has been paid in several cases. Rye would sell freely at 67c; if not at 68c. Jersey and Northern Corn both sold at 55c, wt. A Small parcel of Barley was sold at 45c, bu. Whiskey, 23½, 25 cts. Pot Ashes sell freely at $4,50, their condition is improved by the news. Pearls, $5,25.

Wheat is wanted. For prime Generace for exportation, 100 cts has been paid, and would be paid for more. An order for 2000 bush was filled in Troy at 97 cts for export from here, which makes it cost rather more than 100 cents. A small parcel of old Beer was closed at $3 and $3,50, this being the best offer which could be had—nothing the matter with the beef.

being the best offer which could be had—nothing the matter with the beef.

A great dealer made an offer on Change of $11 bbi, for 5000 bbis of Mess Pork, and gave the day to make up the lot. It was nearly made up on Change, and we think the offer will be compiled with.

300 bbis Richmond Country Flour, and 300 Brandywine sold at $4,624, 50 b bus. Illinois Wheat sold at $6 cents.

P. S.—Evening.—Nothing more done in Cotton. Flour is quite buoyant. The great sale of 5000 bbis Mess Pork at $11 bbi, cash to morrow, has been completed. Codfish are selling slowly at $2,31a37. Mackerel are held at $9,75 and $7,75, but will not sell.

VERY DESIRABLE PROPERTY.

FOR SALE
WE offer for sale, privately, that substantially built and commodous House, on G street, known for many years as the "VIRGINIA HOUSE," being one of the most desirable locations in the city, either for a Boarding House or private residence, from its convenience to all the public offices, the Capitol Sequere, and the business part of the town.

The House fronts 22! feet on G is three stories high, with finished basement and garet rooms, and has the privilege, in common with the adjoining tenement, of a four foot alley to the yard. The premises are now in good order, having been just theroughly repaired by painting, &c. inside and out. The depth of the lot on which the house stands, is 163 feet.

Also, a vacant Lot adjoining, 32! feet front on G street, same depth; in building on which, the purchaser will have the privilege of using the gable wall of the above described building, with chimnies already up—thus saving the most expensive wall.

The above property will be sold together, or separately; and should a sale not be effected privately before THURSDAY, 9th November next, it will on that day, if fair, if not, on the first fair day the reader, at half past 4 o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises, be sold at auction.
